How about, if you don't use your 2A rights then you'll never keep your 1A.

Minimal necessary force doctrine pede. We don't need to roll heads, we need them to know we could

I don't believe in this doctrine. I think every generation of humans needs an up close and personal taste of what happens when they try to trample on our freedom with dead bodies hanging from trees.

Why cause unnecessary death. Emphasis on "necessary". If you can accomplish your goals without murdering people, you don't need to murder people it. Bloodlust is evil. We didn't murder our own countrymen in the Civil War, or blast Nazis by the dozen because of bloodless. We did it because we had no other choice.

We don't have a choice now. Violence must not only be used in self-defense of your life but should also be used in self-defense of your culture and way of life. Either we act now with violence or we'll be dead in spirit before long.
